

Victoria Native Friendship Centre

Internal/External Employment Opportunity

Position Title: Indigenous Wellness Provider: Primary Care Network

Department: Wellness and Health

Hours: Full Time

Wage Range: $25.00-28.63/hr

Closing Date: January 24th, 2025

Working as part of the interdisciplinary VNFC Wellness Team and reporting directly to the Indigenous Lead (PCN), the Indigenous Wellness Provider (IWP) supports VNFC and Primary Care Network (PCN) clients experiencing a range of barriers to health care to coordinate and access Indigenous practitioners, primary health care, social services, and specialized medical care.

IWP's provide support to Indigenous peoples in the Victoria and Western Primary Care Networks including Métis, Inuit, status and non-status First Nations. This position requires a degree or diploma in Social Work, Human Services or related field, or equivalent combination of education and work experience.

Our competitive compensation package includes cost-shared extended benefits and a pension plan. Our team includes people of all Indigenous identities; some who are close to their communities and others who are on a path to learn more about their heritage. In recognition of the importance of a lived understanding of Indigenous communities, history, values and culture, preference is given to Indigenous applicants. Please self-identify in your cover letter.

Applicants must be able to work legally in Canada; VNFC is unable to sponsor employment visas or offer work permits at this time.

Please send cover letter and resume to admin@vnfc.ca No phone calls please. Only those selected will be contacted.
