

Victoria Native Friendship Centre

Internal/External Employment Opportunity

Position Title: Family Violence Prevention Co-Coordinator - Women's Warriors

Department: Family Development and Food Security

Hours: Full-time

Wage Range: $27.00-$29.00hr

Competition Close Date: April 2nd, 2025

Working from an Indigenous world view and under the supervision of the Manager of Family Wellness Supports, the Family Violence Prevention Co-Coordinator is a co-facilitator for the Women Warrior's Program. This position is responsible for co-facilitating the Women's Warrior's Program from a trauma informed, culturally grounded place, towards providing an opportunity for Indigenous Women to gain a deeper understanding of family violence and its impact on self, family and community and work towards ending the cycle of family violence.

Our competitive compensation package includes extended cost-shared benefits and a pension plan. Our team includes people of all Indigenous identities; some who are close to their communities and others who are on a path to learn more about their heritage. In recognition of the importance of a lived understanding of Indigenous communities, history, values and culture, preference is given to Indigenous applicants. Please self-identify in your cover letter.

Applicants must be able to work legally in Canada; VNFC is unable to sponsor employment visas or work permits at this time.

Please send cover letter and resume to admin@vnfc.ca. No phone calls please. Only those selected will be contacted.

See the full job description here or visit our website at vnfc.ca

About the Victoria Native Friendship Centre

The Victoria Native Friendship Centre is a non-profit Indigenous-led organization located on Southern Vancouver Island, BC. Our mandate is to encourage and promote the well-being of urban Indigenous people by strengthening individuals, families, and community.

“VNFC respectfully acknowledges the territory of the Lək̓ʷəŋən People, known today as the Songhees & Xwsepsum¹ on whose land we live, work, learn and prosper.”